Case No. 6:22-cv-03060-MDH

ORDER

Pro Se Plaintiff filed her Compliant (Doc. 1) June 11, 2021. This matter was transferred to this Court from the District Court for the District of Columbia shortly thereafter. (Doc. 4). On November 21, 2022, this Court partially granted Defendant’s Motion to Dismiss. (Doc. 31). In the same order, this Court further ordered Plaintiff “to re-plead the breach of contract allegation against Defendant Johnson in clear language with specific facts no later than December 22, 2022.” (Doc. 27). Plaintiff failed to re-assert her breach of contract claim. Instead, Plaintiff appealed and the Court of Appeals found a lack of jurisdiction. (Docs. 29, 32). On February 1, 2023, this Court again ordered Plaintiff to re-assert the breach of contract claim against Defendant Johnson no later than February 17, 2023. (Doc. 34). Plaintiff has failed to re-assert her original breach of contract claim as ordered by this Court. Therefore, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b), this court dismisses Plaintiff’s breach of contract claim against Defendant Johnson with prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: February 27, 2023
